

"TENANTS' SOVIET"
INQUIRY BEGINS OCT. 18

Chief Justice Kernochan to Preside Both in Manhattan and the Bronx.

Chief Justice Kernochan of the Court of Special Sessions will begin Saturday morning at 11 o'clock a John Doe proceeding called by District Attorney Swann to investigate charges that cliques of men and women have organized tenants in the city to fight their landlords, and have profited enormously thereby at the expense of the tenants.

The proceeding was ordered by Mayor Hylan following the receipt of information from Nathan Hirsch, Chairman of the Mayor's Committee on Rent Fixing, and will be conducted by Assistant District Attorney Waugh. The hearings will be in Part I. Special Sessions, Criminal Court Building.

District Attorney Swann and District Attorney Martin of the Bronx met and decided to co-operate and also hold court in the Bronx by Justice Kernochan if occasion warranted.
It is charged that tenants were induced to strike where rents were not raised and that a sort of soviet organization took over the tenement houses with the announced intention of running them to suit the officers.

GERMANY'S ENVOYS
PICK PARIS HOMES

They Will Be Housed in Three Localities Until Embassy Question Is Settled.

PARIS, Oct. 15.—Temporary quarters for the diplomatic representatives of Germany in France have been chosen in three different places on the left bank of the Seine, according to latest available information.

While Baron von Lerener will be located in the Avenue de la Bourdon-nais, near the Eiffel Tower, together with the higher functionaries of the mission, the remainder of the staff will have apartments in the Avenue Charles Floquet and the Avenue Octave Grevard nearby.

The German Embassy is not expected to be reopened until an Ambassador is appointed and the question settled whether or not the building is finally to be regarded as German property applicable for liquidation under the reparations clause of the Peace Treaty.

Baron von Lerener is supposed to be slated for the post of Charge d'Affaires pending the appointment of an Ambassador.

U. S. Sailor Killed by Fall From

Chair.
LONDON, Oct. 15.—An inquest has been held at Plymouth on an American sailor named Richardson, who died in the Naval Hospital there without recovering consciousness.
Richardson fell from a chair on Saturday and his skull was fractured.
A naval surgeon said he could see his finger through Richardson's skull, so thin was it; "the wonder it is had not been fractured long ago." There was no evidence of foul play.
